THE NEWS.

The dispatches this morning are of unusual interest. We have in full the veto message of the President on the Freedmen's Bureau Bill, which comes several days after the news of the summary passage of the bill over the veto. The snappish manner in which Congress treated this message shows that the ill feeling between it and the President is not abating, in fact we are led to believe that it is on the increase.

The President has appointed Henry Stanberry Attorney-General in place of Hon. Jas. Speed, and Gov. Crawford, of Kansas, has appointed Major A. J. Ross, editor of the Lawrence Tribune, to take the place of the late Gen. Lane in the U. S. Senate. We are also informed that Judge Edmunds, a man against whom many complaints have been made, has been removed from the head of the General Land Office and Joseph Wilson, who we believe has been his chief clerk, is appointed to the place. So much for affairs political.

The latest report from the river states that 145 miles of the Pacific Railroad are completed, and that parties coming from the Plains report the Indians preparing for a grand outbreak. We have every reason to believe this report. The Indians may not break out this week or next, but between now and fall we shall see on the Plains one of the most bloody Indian wars that has taken place during the last ten years.

From New York we learn that the cholera is on the increase, but it is hoped that the precautions taken against it will enable the citizens to hold it in check until cold weather returns.

From Europe we have no definite news of peace, the Prussians continue their victorious march towards the heart of the enemy's country, but the Italians appear to be unfortunate in their attempts to drive the Austrians. Quite an attempt is being made to bring about peace, but it is generally believed that the contending parties will have to fight it out.

THE MONTANA POST.

The last number of this enterprising paper, comes to us in an enlarged form, being printed on a folio sheet. In its typographical appearance it is a model of beauty, and reflects credit upon its wide awake publishers, Messrs. D. W. Tilton & Co. The editorial department is under the management of Prof. Dimsdale, one of the most able and accomplished writers on the Plains. The Post is an able champion of the important and rapidly increasing interests of Montana, and an institution which does honor to the Territory. Nor is its attention monopolized by home matters. In the last number we find an able article on the Utah polygamy question, from which we make the following extract:

Woman is degraded from the sphere to which she has been elevated by the married state, to a condition of concubinage and servitude. She is made to minister only to the selfish and physical nature of man—and of herself, in the capacity of wife and mother, possesses no influence whatever.

This people, while in this state of retrogression, have the effrontery to ask for the admission of their Territory into the Union as a State. Year after year, upon the plea that they have illustrated some of the arts of civilized life in an unpromising part of the country, they desire to enter the sisterhood of States, and drag with them the most loathsome and demoralizing institution of which history gives account. Their preachers and elders, in the meantime, denounce from pulpits and forum the people and government of the Union, and threaten them with war, and in the language of false prophecy and blasphemous revelation predict their speedy and terrible overthrow. If a gentile is in their way, they kill him; if a band of emigrants pass through their Territory who are supposed to have means, they rob and murder them, and if a citizen of one of their towns dares to express his horror at their institutions and principles, they warn him to leave and waylay and kill him if he does not. This is Mormonism. How long will our government permit this, the very worst institution on the face of the earth, to grow up and prosper, and scatter its baneful doctrines in the midst of an enlightened people? How long shall this selfish old man, Young, utter publicly his treasonable threats, ribaldry and licentiousness from pulpit and forum? How long shall woman suffer from the injustice and tyranny of a doctrine which totally destroys her moral nature, and fits her only to minister to the corruption and degradation of her own sex?

That this doctrine should still flourish is as strange as that in the hands of Joe Smith it should ever have found an existence. But it has become an evil of unparalleled enormity. It is a stain upon the nation, a libel upon humanity, and a curse to the race. It has ceased to be a thing with which government can tamper. Instant cure should be applied. Polygamy should be at once abolished, and the laws of the United States enforced. Until this is done, Utah should be under military rule, and every violation of the law tried at the drum-head, commencing with the unmitigated old scoundrel who stands at the head of the country.

TRUSTEES.—The American Flag Publishing Company, of San Francisco have elected the following Trustees: L. P. McCarthy, C. M. Ratcliffe, Dr. J. H. Josselyn, Michael Fenell and Sam. H. Henry.

Mr. James Perry, a miner, was killed by Indians a few days since five miles from Ruby City, Idaho.

BENJAMIN BROWN's valedictory appears in the Sonora Democrat, July 7th.

BY PACIFIC TELEGRAPH.

(SPECIAL TO THE DAILY UNION TELEGRAPH.)

CONGRESSIONAL.

SENATE.

Washington, July 20.

The Senate passed a bill granting the right to all citizens of the United States who have declared their intention to become citizens, to enter and explore unoccupied lands, and pre-empting the manner in which they may obtain and retain said lands.

HOUSE.

Washington, July 20.

The House, after debate, passed Bingham's resolution declaring Tennessee restored to its proper practical relations in the Union. Yeas, 125; nays, 12.

The House rejected Stevens' resolution authorizing the presiding officers of both Houses to convene Congress at any time during the recess. Yeas 48; nays 75.

Stevens made a speech, declaring his object was to guard against any improper action on the part of the President. He believed Congress could delegate the right of convening the two Houses to the doorkeeper if he chose to do so. His apprehension that a coup d'etat would be the consequence, but hoped it would not be that Congress should take measures to protect itself.

Rousseau has forwarded his resignation as a member of Congress to the Governor of Kentucky.

GENERAL NEWS.

Washington, July 20.

The President has nominated Henry Stanberry for Attorney General.

Chicago, July 21.

Gov. Crawford of Kansas has appointed Maj. E. J. Ross U. S. Senator, vice Jim Lane deceased. Ross is editor of the Lawrence Tribune.

Another 20 mile section of the Pacific Railroad has been completed, making 145 miles.

Parties from the Plains represent the Indians massing for war, and say, that as soon as corn is ripe nearly every tribe on the Plains will start on the war path.

The President has removed Edmunds, Commissioner of the General Land Office, and appointed Jos. Wilson to the vacancy.

Washington, July 16.

The following is the President's veto of the Freedmen's Bureau bill to the House of Representatives:

A careful examination of the bill passed by the two Houses of Congress, entitled an Act to continue in force and to amend an Act to establish a bureau for the relief of freedmen and refugees, and for other purposes, has convinced me that the legislation which it proposes would not be consistent with the welfare of the country, and that it falls clearly within the reasons assigned in my message of the 19th of February last, returning without my signature a similar measure which originated in the Senate. It is not my purpose to repeat the objections which I then urged; they are all yet fresh in your recollection, and can be readily examined as part of the records of one branch of the national legislature; adhering to the principles set forth in that message I now re-affirm them and the policy therein indicated. The only ground upon which this kind of legislation can be justified is that of the war making power the act of which this bill is intended, as a majority was passed during the existence of war. By its own provisions it is to terminate in one year from the cessation of hostilities and declaration of peace. It is therefore yet in existence, and it is likely it will continue in force as long as the freedmen may require the benefits of its provisions. It will certainly remain in operation as a law until some months subsequent to the meeting of the next session of Congress, when, if experience shall make evident, the necessity of additional legislation the two Houses will have ample time to mature and pass the requisite measures. In the meantime the questions arise, why should this war measure be continued beyond the period designated in the original act? And why in time of peace should military tribunals be created to continue until each State shall be fully restored in its constant relations to the Government, and shall be duly represented in the Congress of the United States. It was manifest, with respect to the act approved March 3d, 1866, that providence and wisdom alike required that jurisdiction over all cases, concerning free enjoyment of the immunities and rights of citizenship as well as protection of person and property, should be conferred upon some tribunal in every State or District. Where the ordinary course of judicial proceedings is no longer interrupted, the courts, both State and Federal, are now in full, complete and successful operation, and through them every person, regardless of race or color, is entitled to and can be heard. The protection granted to white citizens is already conferred by law upon the freedmen. Strong and stringent guards by way of penalties and punishments are thrown around his person and property, and it is believed that ample protection will be afforded him by due process of law, without resort to the expedient of a military tribunal. Now that the war has been brought to a close the necessity is no longer existing for tribunals, which had their origin in the war. Grave objections to their maintenance must present themselves to the minds of all dispassionate persons independently of the danger to representative republics of conferring upon military, in time of peace, extraordinary powers, so carefully guarded against by patriots and statesmen of the early days of the Republic, so frequently the ruin of Governments, founded on the same free principles and observance of rights and liberty of the citizen. The question of practical economy commends itself to the consideration of the law making power; with an immense debt already burdening the incomes of the industrial and laboring classes, a due regard for their interests, so inseparably connected with the welfare of the country, should prompt us to practice rigid economy and retrenchment, and influence us to abstain from all legislation that would unnecessarily increase the public indebtedness. Tested by this rule of sound political wisdom, I can see no reason for the establishment of the military jurisdiction conferred upon officials of the bureau by the 4th section of the bill. By the laws of the U. S. and the different States competent courts, Federal and State, have been established and are now in full practical operation. By means of these civil tribunals ample redress is offered for all private wrongs, whether to persons or property of the citizen, without resort to all without regard to color or race, and I feel well assured that it will be better to trust the rights, privileges and immunities of citizens to tribunals which will be established and presided over by competent, impartial judges, bound by fixed rules of law and evidence, and where the right of trial by jury is guaranteed and secured than to the caprice or judgment of an officer of the bureau, who, it is possible, may be entirely ignorant of the principles that underlie the just administration of law. There is danger that a conflict of jurisdiction will frequently arise between the civil courts and these military tribunals, each having concurrent jurisdiction over the person and cause of action of the one jurisdiction administered and controlled by civil law. How is the conflict to be settled and who is to determine between the two tribunals when it arises?

In my opinion it is wise to guard against such a conflict by leaving to the courts the jurisdiction of all civil rights and redress for all violations. The fact cannot be denied that since the cessation of hostilities many acts of violence, such perhaps as had never been witnessed in their previous history, have occurred in the States involved in the late rebellion. I believe, however, that public opinion will sustain me in asserting that such deeds of wrong are not confined to any particular State or section, but are manifested over the entire country, demonstrating that the cause that produced them does not depend upon any particular locality, but is the result of the agitation and derangement incident to a long and bloody war.

I may urge upon your consideration the additional reason that recent developments in regard to the practical operations of the Bureau in many of the States show that in many cases it is used by its agents as the means of promoting their individual advantage, and that freedmen are employed for the advancement of the personal ends of the officers instead of their own improvement.

By the provisions of the act, full protection is offered through the District Courts of the United States to all persons injured; and whose privileges, as thus declared, are in any way impaired, and very heavy penalties are denounced against the person who willfully violates the law. I need not state that the law did not receive my approval, yet its remedies are far more preferable than those proposed in the present bill. We are one being civil and the other military. By the 6th section of the bill heretofore returned certain proceedings, by which the lands in the parishes of St. Helena and St. Luke were sold and bid in afterwards and disposed of by tax commissioners, are confirmed and ratified by the 7th, 9th, 10th and 11th sections. Provisions are made by law for the disposal of lands thus acquired. While the quieting of titles is deemed important and desirable, the discrimination made in the bill seems objectionable, as does also the attempt to confer upon commissioners judicial powers by which citizens of the United States are to be deprived of their property in a mode contrary to that provision of the Constitution which declares that no person shall be deprived of life, liberty or property without due process of law. As a general principle such legislation is unsafe, unjust, partial and unconstitutional. It may deprive persons of their property who are equally deserving of the nation's bounty as those whom by this legislation Congress seeks to benefit. The title to land thus to be portioned out to a favored class of citizens must depend upon the regularity of the tax sales under the law as it existed at the time of the sale, and no subsequent legislation can give validity to the right thus acquired as against the original claimant.

The attention of Congress is therefore invited to a more mature consideration of the measures proposed in the sections of the bill.

In conclusion, I again urge upon Congress the danger of a class of legislation so well calculated to keep the public mind in a state of uncertain expectation and restlessness, and to encourage interested hopes and fears that the National Government will continue to furnish to classes of citizens in the several States the means for support and maintenance, regardless as to whether they pursue a life of idleness or of labor, and regardless also, of the constitutional limitation of the national authority in times of peace and tranquillity.

The bill is herewith returned to the House of Representatives, in which it originated, for its final action.

(Signed) ANDREW JOHNSON.

New York, July 21.

The steamer Arizona has arrived with California dates to the 30th.

Official reports show that the cholera is making rapid headway through the Metropolitan District. It broke out among the troops on Hart Island yesterday and 9 deaths are reported. Ten deaths are reported on Governor's Island, and several cases are reported in the city.

Five deaths by cholera in this city and 7 in Brooklyn to-day out of twenty cases.

The Post's money article says the loan market is over supplied, but rates in favor however. The Arizona, from California, brought $2,064,062 in treasure. Cotton 1c better, 37 3/8c. for middling upland. Flour dull and 10a25c. lower. Wheat dull, with strong downward tendency. Corn 1c lower.

The Monitor says the attempt is still being made for a peaceful settlement. La France says that the Derby cabinet has recommended Italy to accept mediation. France does not stay her victorious march. Making Padubitz headquarters, the armies either have taken possession of Prague or will shortly do so. Prince Charles holds the railroad direct upon Vienna. The Austrians have beaten the Italians at Borgoforte and Montebello. The Italians were repulsed five times at Borgoforte. Gen. Ciaffardini crossed the Po into Venetia on the 8th, at the head of his army corps. The assertion of La France that France has recommended Italy to not attack Venetia is discredited at Berlin. Marshal Benedek appears to be withdrawing towards Brunn, followed by both armies. All the forces on the Elbe between Padubitz and Elbertenitz are held by the Prussians. The cholera continued to rage at Stettin, and was rapidly increasing at Berlin. Of 148 cases in Berlin on the 8th, 71 proved fatal.

MILITARY.—The California and Nevada troops now at Camp Douglas will be mustered out in a few days, the four companies of the 18th Infantry intended to relieve them, having arrived. Major Lewis, of the 18th, will succeed Colonel Johns in command of the Post.

SALT LAKE THEATRE.—We take pleasure in announcing to the public that Mr. John Kelly, the celebrated vocalist and violinist, will give one of his pleasing entertainments at the Salt Lake Theatre next Wednesday evening. Mr. Kelly is well known to almost every old resident of the Pacific coast as one of the most talented and accomplished musicians in the country, and no lover of good music should fail to attend his concerts in this city.

ACCIDENTAL DISCHARGE.—Saturday evening quite an excitement was occasioned in the Salt Lake Theatre by the accidental discharge of a pistol, which was on the person of an army teamster, in the third circle. As the man went to sit down the pistol caught and went off, the ball entering the leg of a soldier of the 18th Inf. and inflicting a painful but not dangerous flesh wound.

FOUND DEAD.—A week ago last Saturday a Spaniard, who had been herding horses near this city, started for the Point of the Mountain, and the next day his horse was found, but nothing was heard of the rider until his body was found last Friday about seven miles west of the city. Officer Heath went out to the body last Saturday, but it was so much decomposed that it was impossible to tell how he came to his death. The supposition is that he was thrown from his horse and died from the effects of the fall, as he was intoxicated and mounted on a wild horse when he left the city.

THE HARP OF A THOUSAND STRINGS.—The Polygamists' organ, the Daily Telegraph, of yesterday, comes out in its usual whine about the persecution of the Saints and the fate destined for their enemies.

It is our opinion that the persecution whine is about played out with the thinking and loyal portion of the Saints; and as to the fate threatened to that portion of the Gentiles of Utah, who have the manhood to denounce assassination, crime and lawlessness, we have no fears, we presume two can play at the same game, and with the Western States and Territories, and the loyal and law-abiding portion of the Mormon people, to back the latter, we can guess who will come out winner.

Crack your whip, old boy, and send your assassins on the war path—if you dare.

CENTRAL PACIFIC RAILROAD.—The car on the Central Pacific Railroad now run to Alta, two miles above Dutch Flat, and sixty-seven miles from Sacramento. The time made in six hours and twenty minutes up, or at the rate of eleven miles per hour. The elevation of the present terminus above Sacramento is about thirty-five hundred feet. The cars will be running to Cisco, near the summit, in November, next.—R. H. News.

From Montana. Prof. Dinwiddie of the Post is improving in his health, but is not able as yet to resume his editorial chair. Col. W. F. Sanders is stopping in Helena this summer. The Helena Advertiser is to be published daily. Messrs. Wilkinson, McGuire and Roman are about starting a Democratic weekly at Helena, to be called the Gazette. The first number of the Helena Republican will be issued shortly. The store of Messrs. Walker Bros., of Helena, took fire on the morning of the Fourth. The goods were damaged to the amount of $4,000. The steamers Helena, Tom Stevens, David Watts, Agnes, Sunset and Huntville have arrived at Ft. Benton.

QUARTZ.—We are happy to say that the prospectors for quartz are meeting with good success in their labors, all over the Territory. Discoveries are being daily made in almost every district. Pipestone is among the leading localities; but in Summit District, in the country lying north of Alder gulch, not yet much explored; at Silver Bow, round McClellan, Confederate, New York, Big Bear, Deer Lodge, the Missouri, Edgerton and divers other places, quartz is being struck by all the old hands, and frequently by inexperienced gold seekers. On the divide between Oro-Fino and Lamp, gulches, in Edgerton, a fine lode, called the Organic, has been located. The ore closely resembles the Whitlatch, in Owyhee Park. We trust shortly to give an account of the progress making in the Home District, comprising the gulches and hills in the neighborhood of the Sinkwater. We have heard general accounts of many valuable discoveries in this district.—Montana Post.
